Obituary

Elder Jimmy Lee Phillips,
Pastor

Easter Memorial Church of God in Christ

The Unadulterated Word of God. The Reverend Jimmy Phillips can talk about growing up in Brookhaven, Mississippi. He can talk about his first assignment there as Pastor of Red Lake Church of God in Christ, or his assignment as Associate Pastor of Prayer Tower Church of God in Christ in New Orleans. If pressed, he can even talk about his auto body shop on Gun Hill Road, on the dividing line between Baychester and Pelham Gardens. But more than anything else, Pastor Phillips can talk about what he calls "The Unadulterated Word of God." The Congregation of Easter Memorial Church of God in Christ at 1320 Boston Road in Morrisania wouldn't have it any other way.

Pastor Jimmy L. Phillips, was the only son of David and Mary M. Phillips. He was born on January 17, 1939 in Brownwell, Mississippi. He was the Pastor of Easter Memorial Church of God in Christ in the Bronx, New York. He also pastored in Redlick, Mississippi and the House of Prayer in Yonkers, New York.

Elder Phillips was the second Vice President of the Bronx Shepherd Organization where he served on the Ordination Board of New York Jurisdiction #1 Church of God in Christ. He served under Bishop F.D. Washington, Bishop O. Clemmons and Bishop James Gaylord. Elder Phillips was known to Bishop Clemmons as John the Baptist Preacher.

This well-gifted preacher was ordained in Memphis, Tennessee, during the Holy Convocation by Bishop C. H. Mason.

He resided in the Bronx, New York where he is survived by: his wife, Sister Angelina Phillips; his mother, Mary M. Phillips; sons and daughters namely, Ronald A. Phillips, Barbara J. Phillips, Jimmy L. Jr. Phillips, Reverend Victor L. Phillips, Theresa G. Guim, Clayborn M. Phillips, Margaret A. Phillips, Yolonda M. Phillips, Deborah S. Morgan, Lynette Morgan, and Tamisha L. Morgan; sons-in-law, J.T. Phillips and Barry S. Guim; daughters-in-law, Elizabeth Phillips and Jean Phillips; grandchildren, Victoria M., Andrea L., Jammie L., Mia N., David M., Mitchell, Jr., Jennette, Joshua, Adjwana, Ronald A., Damon, Shavonne, Sean, LeeAnn, Samara, Samantha, Michael, Naijah E., Charles and Shanta; great-grandchildren, Laststasha and Keyanna; aunt, Lucile Ellen Davis; uncle, C.J.; and a host of relatives, church family and friends.

We may cry because we miss his presence, but we will not mourn as those who have no hope. For we know a good soldier never dies and we will hold onto his memories.

The hope of God's glory that will come on that great day. . .

Respectfully Submitted,
The Family

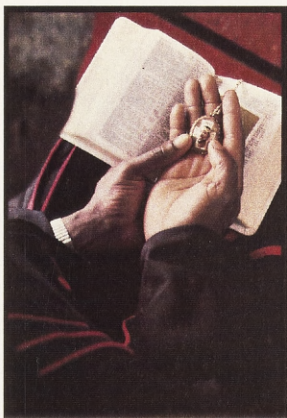

We greatly admire our father and the wonderful legacy he left.

We cheerfully refer to our father as "Preacher" who was in every way a preacher.

According to II Timothy 4:2-"Preach the word! Be instant in season, out of season. Reprove, rebuke, exalt with long suffering and doctrine" of which our father's life reflected every word.

We will miss him and always love him and will meet him on that great day!

With Much Love,
His sons:
Ronnie, Jr., Victor and Mitchell

You and mom have given us a gift to last for a lifetime and that is Jesus. Through good and bad days, and for things that cannot be uttered.

We will love you and miss you.

Love, Your Girls
Theresa and Yolanda

We love you, but God loves you best. We know you are with Him because we saw you at peace.

We will miss you.
Wife, Deborah, Lynette and Tamisha

Well done, well done, my faithful son. Here's a ticket that you have won.

It opens to that heavenly gate not without any price or rate.

While you walk the steps to enter the kingdom, I hear God saying "well done my son."

As you reach the top of the place, I can see a glow on your face

I know you're automatically accepted in His grace.

I can hear God saying, "now you can enter the Kingdom.

Well done, well done, well done my son. . ."

We love you and miss you, Papa.
Love, Damon, Shavonne and Sean
